

2009 "JOHN DOE" ROADRACING CREDENTIAL APPLICATION

A "John Doe" credential enables an entrant to purchase a season pass in the form of a pre-paid single event credential for each Roadracing event. These credentials may be utilized by a different individual at each event without the requirement of purchasing an AMA Pro Racing membership.

The entrant must provide AMA Pro Racing with the name of the person they have approved to claim their "John Doe" credential in writing by the designated deadline prior to each event. The person entitled to claim the credential would only need to present his/her photo ID at Will Call in AMA Pro Racing Registration and sign the appropriate release forms in order to claim their credential.
